C2 ANNOUNCES SAT CHALLENGE WINNERS

Top regional finishers receive cash prizes and local mention

Atlanta, GA (02 June 2008) – C2 Education announced the latest winners in its 2008 SAT Challenge—an excellent opportunity for high school students to practice for the PSAT, SAT, or ACT. Middle-school students preparing for Duke's TIP program, various Gifted and Talented Programs, and private school entrance exams have also taken the C2 SAT Challenge as a test-run for their individual big tests.

C2's SAT Challenge consists of regional competitions where the top three finishers receive cash prizes of $500, $300, and $200 respectively, in addition to a plaque and mention in sponsoring newspapers and with USAEDNEWS.

Region	1st Place	2nd place	3rd place	Honorary Award
Atlanta, GA	Karen Jang	Ryan Jeong	Daniel Chang
Chicago, IL	Noah Huh	Jennifer Lyu	Paul Chung
DC Metro Area	Anna Kim	Hubert Shang	Young Min Yook	Sarah Byun (5 th Grade, 2010 score)

Students in grades 6-12 are eligible to take the Challenge, regardless of whether he or she is currently enrolled at C2. Registration fees vary from $30-$40 by region. Following the Challenge date, students can get their competition results by contacting a local C2 center. Parents are invited to accompany their children to the Challenge where they can hear more about C2 offerings along with information on the college application and financial aid process.
